

"After the first rain along the upper Santa Ynez River"

Oil painting by Peter Gino Niederer

My favorite landscapes are the southwest high desert and the pristine, natural world of the Santa Ynez Valley with its changing seasons.
Painting is part of my self-fulfillment on the never ending road in search of perfection.